

HAMILTON
HOUSTON
LOWNIE

CANISIUS COLLEGE ADMINISTRATION BUILDING RENOVATION

Buffalo, New York

Hamilton Houston Lownie Architects developed renovations and repairs to this former convent, and subsequent high school building, on the newly created 'north campus' of Canisius College.

The project included slate roof replacement, handicapped accessibility, exit stair tower addition, exterior brick repairs and renovation to accommodate administrative and development offices.

The renovations were designed to anticipate future uses including offices and classrooms.

Project Size:	NA
Project Cost:	$2,000,000
Completion:	1995
Client:	Canisius College
Reference:	Laurence Franz, Ph.D.
Telephone:	(716) 888-2480