

HAMILTON
HOUSTON
LOWNIE

MAIN PLACE MALL ADAPTIVE REUSE CONCEPT STUDY

Buffalo, New York

Hamilton Houston Lownie Architects developed some possible conversion designs of this existing Downtown Buffalo shopping mall. The building owner asked HHL to study a possible mixed-use office occupancy for the main two levels of the mall structure.

We introduced a new glass elevator to provide another connection between the main floor level and the second (mezzanine) level.

Project Size:	approx. 200,000 sf
Project Cost:	NA
Complete:	2003
Client:	Main Place liberty Group
Reference:	Eric LeFebrve
Telephone:	(716) 855-1900